The first readers of the writings of the author are the “Illuminati” and other ethnical and national secret political organizations controlling, conserving and using the ethnic groups, nations, national states and great religions. Because the creation of his writings has been devoid of their control, and their contents revealing their abusive actions and deeds are interpreted as being politically inconvenient or offensive, they collide with their ambition of mass-communication omnipotence, and they will not recognize them, and will tend to objectify their non-recognition by tending with their occult civil and state power to usurp their creation and destroy them by disrupting to bits and finally obscuring their contents as information and evidences about their existence and actions, as well as potential history-forming factors contrary to their interests, by this means asserting their general politics relative to the freely thinking, researching, writing and publishing persons qualified by them as “dangerous”: “The author of these writings is a nobody, and has nothing.” For this purpose, they are striving, among others, to have the new scientific elements sorted out of them, to nationalize them, to usurp, to transfer into the property of nation the copyright relative to them, assuming the mask of their personal secret agents, with or without plagiary mock trials based on tricks as sham evidences, with the usurped-nationalized copyright to have his writings withdrawn from firstly the international circulation, and by so doing to deprive the potential readers of the accessibility to these information and evidences relative to them. With the purpose of making it possible, disguising it, facilitating it, or increasing the efficiency of the plagiarizing, they intend — among others — to apprehend a scientific element not in its entirety, but in its essence, in an its forged “starting-point” creating process, or in the form of an implication assertion. For this reason, the author considers it as being a personal secret political attack, a national criminal act, and a national plagiary mock trial, or a national plagiarizing process against science, scientific cognition, the free streaming of information, civil society, democracy, his person, and potentially other individuals secretly qualified as “dangerous”, executed in the mask of members of some organs of national states and/or of the civil society as national criminals, as well as a further evidence relative to the existence and actions of the ethnical and the national secret political organizations any such trial or other process initiated or conducted against him, or his writings, or without public regard to them, which does without evidences beyond any shadow of doubt relative to the copyright of the scientific elements arrogated or used by that trial or process, contained by his writings, or produces sham evidences relative to that copyright. But they have on their part to understand that there is an upper limit to their occult plagiarizing power tending to usurp everything that is not evidently of the author: the origination of a writing would be of the author, even if its each and every word were claimed and in fact established to have been quoted, or the “polishing” of a book would be of the author, even if its origination were claimed and in fact established to be of another person. Like the origination of an interview is of the interviewer, and not of the interviewee, or a sculpture is of the sculptor, and not of the stone cutter. Or like the origination of a building is of the architect, and not of the brick-maker, or the reconstruction work of a building is of the mason, and not of the architect. However, they can only claim, and have their claims established in law, without establishing anything in fact, because they cannot prove their doctored claims, they can just make them believable. The reason why the competent and ultimate judges of the writings should be considered to be not the states, but the readers.

Cover-graphic information

On the cover, figuratively, the star of David enlightens the dark side of the islamic moon, for a symbol of the contrast between the light of the western civilization and the darkness of the islamic civilization.

Language information

The language of this book is not quite the english proper. There are many languages on Terra that are potentially universal in that everyone may acquire and use them without a significant change in quality of life. There is a wide civil need for a unique real universal language in order to enable humans to communicate with one another. The Roman Empire was not sufficient for carrying into effect the universality of the latin language. A national state shall not be capable of carrying into effect the universality of its language ever. At present, the english proper is the nearest to the quality of unique real universal language. However, as a natural language it has many deficiencies. And as rules in a language are made not by states, but by its users in thinking, speaking and writing, with translating his writings into the english language the author makes a few steps towards turning the english proper into the unique real universal language on Terra, as an intermediary phase towards disabling the imperialist national states to produce new cases like that of Elizabeth Adam, and breaking down all artificial frontiers among humans and peoples in the Terra nation and the Terra state.

Contributing to the carrying into effect of the universality of the english language does not mean that the author considers it to be the best means of universal communication. As a user of the english, the hungarian, and the romanian potentially universal languages, he can say that the hungarian language is suitable for a generally more unambiguous and more tinged wording than the english and the romanian languages. Only that, in this his assertion, he could be accepted by only around 15 millions, and rejected by hundreds of millions of humans.

The national imperialists defend the nations created by them from their members, and the national states founded by them from their citizens,
as “Gods they save their kings” from the humans.
Demand the human right for state founding!
Otherwise the imperialist states can infringe human rights.
The state infringement of human rights is a national criminal act.
The national criminal acts are committed by national criminals.
The national criminals are inhuman, anti-humanist,
they create social restlessness and peacelessness.
Let there be humane, humanist, democratic states founded by the humans, in order that humans may live in a human manner
a restful and peaceful life!*

*In “God” i do not trust, because i know that it is only a mask for the “Illuminati”,
and the other national secret political organizations;
and in the national states founded by them i do not trust, only in the United States of Terra dreaded by them i believe.*

For the assertion of the universal secularization of religions

Foreword

In this book, I present primarily in the form of photos some manifestations according to my experiences of the civilization of some iraqi and somali muslim persons, so that they related to the civilization of a refugee camp in Finland between september and november 2015. From a european or generally western point of view, this can be qualified as being uncivilization.

The primary precondition of the scientific research of the koran, and generally the “holy scriptures”, [2 Tim. 3: 15] is atheism. Namely, from the scientific point of view, the notion of “god”, or generally “divinity” — as they are presented by theologies — are needless, useless, moreover maleficent. This may be one of the main causes of that besides and in spite of the rapid development of the sciences the different religions are still expansively widespread, and from among them the islam by its political nature can appear for a determinant world-political factor, and as such its some applications can threaten the achievements and existence of the western civilization.

As an atheist, and partly learning from my personal experiences panoplied with the concept of “national secret political organization”, it was clear to me still prior to reading the bible that also the “holy books” had to be originated by such secret political organizations in the interest of maintaining and expanding their power. In this way, during studying the bible mainly between 2003 and 2004 I could become conscious of that while the “old testament” of the jewish, the “new testament” had to be the creation of the latin ethnical secret political organization primarily. And as regards the koran, also a superficial knowledge of the “prophet”, Mecca, and Medina was enough to suppose in its originator the arab ethnical secret political organization conviction-likely. These hypotheses and convictions are corroborated by the existence and history of the roman and, respectively, the arab empires.

One of the purposes of creating the koran might have been the civilizing of the arab tribes. Certainly, the arab ethnical secret political organization also hoped that with the islam it would be able to bring forth peace among the arab tribes. That is why it meant it for a religion of peace, and there hopes nowadays also the “Islamic State” brought into being and manipulated by it that while it is continuously warring and threatening the world with war it will be able with bringing into existence the world caliphate as an arab empire to produce peace in the first place among the arab peoples, for a precondition of their fusing into a Muslim “nation.” [II. 128] Be it said to the failure of the arab ethnical secret political organization that its hopes attached to the koran have not come true after having passed around 1300 years either. In spite of the fact, it obstinately sticks to it, and with such cover names as “Muslim Brotherhood”, “Al-Qaeda”, and not at last “Islamic State” it starts doing newer and newer experiments for attaining its utopian purposes. As it, namely “Allah, bestows His Sovereignty on whom He will.” [I. 247]

It is notable the parallel between the highest theoretical level of the islam and the lowest practical level of some muslim persons and organizations, namely between how the islam denies the principles of the occidental democracy, and how a part of the muslim persons and organizations deny achievements of the occidental democracy with their wasting and destructive practices. Albeit many asylum seekers come from places where there is no water source or pure drinking-water, and in the koran “water is sent down from the sky by Allah”, and he promises it to the “Paradise” in the form of rivers, a part of them disdain — do not drink — and waste the european tap-water, probably because it comes not from “Allah”, but from humans, what is more from “disbelievers”, as an achievement of the western civilization.

The occidental democracy presently recognizes the reason of existence of the islamic religion, parties, and states. On the other hand, the islam and some islamic organizations overtly, and the arab and other islam user ethnical secret political organizations secretly deny the occidental democracy, and with different methods — terrorism, migration, etc. — striving to destroy it they want to attain the world domination of islam. Consequently, beyond that it is a political ideology given the appearance of a religion, by its intolerance and disregarding of some human rights the islam is fascism as well: “Allah is an enemy to the disbelievers. [II. 98] I will throw fear into the hearts of those who disbelieve. Then smite of them the necks.” [VIII. 12] Further, even if the islam cannot be considered barbarism, but it constitutes a dreadful means for some muslim persons and organizations for the deployment of certain barbarian instincts and propensities. As such, in the more civilized states of the earth, the islam can at least partly be considered outside of law.

The complete unlawfulness of the koran in secular states is underpinned by that while to be christian is enough to believe that “Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God”, [Jn. 20: 31] who “was crucified, and the third day he rose again”, [Mt. 20:19] for the muslims is not enough to believe in that “there is no deity save Allah”, [II. 255] but they have to also “obey Allah and the messenger.” [IV. 59] And this obedience has to be exclusive: “do not obey the disbelievers, but strive against them herewith with a great endeavor.” [XXV. 52] On the basis of this, the muslims may be loyal only to islamic states.

For the assertion of the outside-of-law character of the islam, it is needed a consequent and exquisite assertion of the secularism confirmed by the historical practice. This also means that the believer or non-believer politicians should go without religion as a political means. The carrying out of all these is highly questionable at present.

For this reason, the proving of the nature of religiously disguised political ideology of the islam will probably require further research. On my part, although I expounded in detail in a book structure the results of my bible examination held mainly between 2003 and 2004, namely my hypotheses created about the historical origin of the “old” and “new testaments”, but i have not finished yet the computer phase of its edition. In its present hungarian- and english-language forms, I uploaded it to my Google mailbox, and in case of my possible early death it will become available for everyone pursuant to my copyright dispositions relative to my writings. [Note: I published the results of my bible research in an electronic form in april 2019.] Further, my koran examination begun in january 2013 i interrupted in november 2013, and I will only finish it later.

Naturally, the ethnical secret political organizations — and in the first place the directly touched and the greatest ones — are not indifferent and passive observers of this activity of mine. They are in fact not interested in uncovering the historical origin of the “holy books”, as those constitute evidences just of their existence and actions. Generally, they strive to turn every successful more important individual actions to the “glory” of their own “nations”, and in the interest of this they do not baulk at the means of deceit and falsification either. For this reason, the pseudo-distributions of such knowledge plagiarized from me by them with secret-service means started in all probability by them after 2003 are of such character that those do not mean an uncovering and distribution on the merits, in case of my unsuccess those can be withdrawn or buried, and in the case of the relative success of my distribution those can be thrown in against me, with the purpose of obstructing a real distribution, expropriating the achieved results, and preventing the achievement of further results. For this reason, in this regard, I consider it to be foredoomed authentic only the scientific works published before april 2003 in journals and books printed on paper.

However, the perils inherent to the islam are not at an end in its deceiving and decoying hypocrisy. Taking into account what contribution it has to the development of science, technique and technology, it becomes clear that subsequently to the destruction of the occidental democracy the islam is able to destroy also the developing future of humanity. And the monument ravaging activity of the Islamic State adumbrates the intention of destroying also the history of the occidental democracy.

The islam means a peril to the muslims as well, as taking advantage of the good faith and credulity of humans the arab and other islam user ethnical secret political organizations make them believe with the aim of the secret control and direction of society that there is “Allah” as a powerful supernatural being, namely the ethnical secret political organizations themselves, and if the humans obey them, namely “Allah and His messenger, — who in the case of Al-Qaeda was Osama bin-Laden, and in the case of the Islamic State is Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi, for artificially produced personalities, just as the personality of the “prophet” himself — he will make them enter Gardens underneath which rivers flow, where they will dwell for ever.” [IV. 13] Then, as the believers cannot “enter paradise while yet Allah does not know those of them who really strive [III. 142] in his blighting the disbelievers”, [III. 141] for stimulating the young men for suicide attempts and other combat actions, they still came forward with that in the “paradise virgins” [LVI. 36] will be at the disposal of the “martyrs.” [IV. 69] This indicates that the islam user ethnical secret political organizations are not interested in anything else, but only in maintaining and spreading their power. With the islam, they are leading peoples towards catastrophe.

The publication of this book in the hungarian language does not mean that I see Hungary as being at present fit for a pioneering role in the process of universal secularization, but that from among the three languages known relatively well by me, I can express myself with the hungarian the best, and I consider the hungarian as being the most fit for the most univocal expression possible. In 1956, the Hungarian state and people was in an acute need of improving their international judgement. It may be that this was one of the basic conditions of the anti-communist revolution, as with that Hungary obtained “glory” in the West, and respect in the East, and could afford starting doing pioneering experiments in the framework of communism. The hungarian ethnical secret political organization saw a means in communism, but only under the circumstances of the soviet communism obtruded upon it. In the 10th century o. o. e. it saw a means also in christianity in the christian Europe, insomuch that it itself obtruded it upon the “pagan” hungarian people. This approach of its is unchanged at present as well, although today no one threatens with crusade from the west neither in case of a most complete assertion of secularism. Moreover, it is one of the most fervent urgers of defining christianity as not only a hungarian, but also a european identity element. And this will be so until the international political order makes it possible that cowering behind states and churches, and making use of them the ethnical secret political organizations can secretly enforce their own policies on the human society.

5. The relationship of the koran with the above uncivilized manifestations

According to my experiences, the overwhelming majority of the muslim persons use water carried into the toilet in a plastic bottle, or accessible there through a hose, for washing after defecation. With that, they comply in the greatest measure with the “command of Allah” [II. 109] according to which “if you come from the closet, and do not find water, then go to high clean soil and rub your hands therewith. Allah is Benign, Forgiving.” [IV. 43]

However, the rules of the western hygiene require that such a washing be immediately followed by a hand-wash with soap. Personally, I have only rarely seen muslim persons coming out of the toilet wash their hands at the basin, and even in those cases only with water. And probably, they do not use soap there, as it would be too circuitous to perform such a complex washing in a toilet cabin without a basin. This made it partly necessary the prescription of the rules of using the toilet and the wash-room.

The devaluing relationship of the respective muslim persons to achievements of the occidental democracy is eloquently mirrored by that while the “Benign and Forgiving Allah” made it possible for them to in absence of water clean themselves with “high clean soil”, [IV. 43] they disdainfully go without the toilet paper. Further, with computer search I found no kind of “commands” relative to material environment protection in the koran. Probably, this partly explains the above uncivilized manifestations.

Otherwise, the absence of the “commands” relative to the cleanness of the environment seems also on the level of the 7th century to be a fundamental omission on the part of “Allah” desiring to civilize the arab tribes. Maybe, “He” would go on better if on the level of the 21st century it would not incite with some prescripts of the koran a destructive and murdering enmity “wishing for death”, [III. 143] but renouncing “His” ambition relative to the monopoly of knowledge, creation and guidance, as well as recognizing the ability to know, create and guide of humans, “He” would stimulate a creating and human-respecting tranquility, collaboration, and friendship “greedy for life”, [II. 96] for the creation of a livable environment in the Middle-East and North-Africa. As “He” can not only “try the humans with loss of wealth and lives and crops”, [II. 155] but “He is Able to do all things, He multiplies in creation what He will.” [XXXV. 1]

Book-creation information

The author created this book approximately between november and december 2015, as conceiver, researcher, writer and editor, under private-life circumstances, resulting from the need of asserting and corroborating his hypothesis according to which the “holy scriptures” are major evidences of the existence and actions of the ethnical and the national secret political organizations. The electronic redaction of the book was made by the author personally mainly with the following technical means: Acer AOD270, Rollei Sportsline 60, Linux-GNU Mint 17, LibreOffice 4.2, GIMP 2.8.

Book-publication information

In june 2019, the author discovered ethnical-national secret politically potentially unfair multinational internet re-distributions of this and other books of his, which is presumedly an extension in space, time and person, as well as a new manifestation of the anti-Elizabeth Adam multinational conspiracy described in his book entitled “National Conspirations for Stifling Elizabeth Adam As a Terrestrial Extraterrestrial Historical Personality”. This made it necessary the modification of the copyright dispositions mentioned at the beginning of the book, and the re-publication of the book, without substantial content and structure modification.

Author information

The photo taken on 16 april 2016 represents the author, István ADORJÁN. He was born on 20 december 1959 in the village Mikháza [Read approximately: 'mikha:zɔ.] [In the romanian language: Călugăreni.] in the county Maros [Read approximately: 'mɔroʃ.] [In the romanian language: Mureș.] in Romania, his citizenship is romanian, his ethnicity hungarian, his identity first of all human, at present he regards not one state his own or his country, ideologically he is atheist, politically liberal, his theory-like conviction is that the great religions and the national states are creatures and means of ethnical secret political organizations, with his writings his purpose is the publication and diffusion of his say of scientific, philosophic-atheist, progressive, humanist, non-nationalist and liberal spirituality, particularly the revelation, publication and diffusion of his say relative to the national-imperialist, anti-humanist, anti-progressive and anti-scientific nature and activity of the national secret political organizations, great religions and national states.
